A Slice of Nabiac History

Take a look at this 100-year-old Renovators delight set on Hoskins St that was once a very important road that was used at the turn of the century for the logging trucks from Mt Talawahl to the sawmill near the river.

The house featuring 3 bedrooms, 1 bathroom, 1 living room with a fan and fireplace, formal dining, and kitchen/dining. Set on a 1300m2 block this little house has a lot of character. The interior of the house still features the original timber walls and floors. Huge entertaining area at the rear of the house and verandah off the side of the house also a 2 bay garage. With house being set toward the front of the property it gives you plenty of room to park the caravan or boat.

Being in the heart of Nabiac you aren't far from the school and shops and only a short 20min drive to Taree or the beaches in Forster/Tuncurry and only 3 hours from Sydney.
